The largest international multi-sport event ever to be held on the Isle of Wight

From 25th June to 1st July, the Isle of Wight will play host to the NatWest Island Games, an international sporting event which will involve thousands of talented athletes from 25 islands around the world, challenging themselves and each other in the quest for victory in 14 sports.

The NatWest Island Games are held every two years on different host Islands and for many of the competitors, the Games will pave the way towards participation in the Commonwealth Games and the Olympics.

Some of Great Britain's Olympic athletes have taken part in the NatWest Island Games and competed as part of the Isle of Wight team:

Kelly Sotherton, Olympic Bronze in the Heptathlon

Darren Mew, Olympic finalist and Commonwealth Silver medallist swimmer.

For the Isle of Wight and everybody who enjoys sport, this will be a truly unique and memorable event.

'An Extraordinary Island' Opening Ceremony Parade

Saturday 25th June:

Ryde Town Centre and Esplanade

Promising to be an amazing carnival extravaganza, the Opening Ceremony Parade, themed 'An Extraordinary Island', will tell the story of the Isle of Wight as it winds its way through the streets of Ryde.

'An extraordinary Island'

Around 1500 young people will perform the 20 'chapters' which depict various historic and folkloric episodes in the history of the Island, in a highly choreographed procession parading with the athletes from around the world.

Closing Ceremony

Friday 1st July:

Cowes Town Centre and Esplanade

The finale to a week of great sporting achievements. The athletes will parade through Cowes as they wave their final goodbyes to local supporters.
